Andrea Fieldhouse: Andrea, through her ministry to parents and children, has developed Building Bridges. This ministry engages in a rhythm of faith practices that happens in the home and empowers parents to lead in praying, talking about faith, sharing biblical stories and creating rituals for their families.

Lyle Griner: Lyle knows that what counts is youth being encircled by those who are invested in their faith and in their lives. Full Circle Training is about engaging adults to mentor youth and care for them in everyday life. It is about being authentic, available, and affirming while engaging in the lives of youth.
