On Saturday, October 17, you can do something about hunger. The Fourth Ending Hunger Summit will convene at Bethany Lutheran Church in Cherry Hills Village, Colorado (4500 East Hampden), with satellite sites at St. Luke Lutheran Church in Albuquerque (9100 Menaul Blvd NE) and St. Timothy Lutheran Church in El Paso (11050 Montwood Dr).

This year's summit theme is "Global Recession: We're All in This Together." We will welcome three exceptional guest presenters:

Nancy Arnison, Director of the ELCA World Hunger Appeal

David Creech, Director of ELCA Hunger Education

Ellen Teller, Director of Governmental Affairs for the Food Research and Action Center (Washington, D.C.)

Registration begins at 8:30 am. The summit officially opens at 9:00 and the morning will feature presentations by our three guests. After lunch, there will "snapshot studies" that explore the global impact of hunger and recession in Madagascar as well as specific domestic impacts here in the United States. There will be ample opportunity for questions and answers and discussion. The event is scheduled to end at 3:00 pm.
