God's work. Our hands.

August 2017

Dear Partners in Christ,

Once again we invite your congregation to join the fun of Theater and Theology (T&T), which several Rocky Mountain Synod Front Range congregations have been enjoying for nearly 30 years.

What is Theater & Theology? Participating congregations (and individuals) enjoy a special arrangement with the Theater Company of the Denver Center for the Performing Arts (DCPA), where after viewing a performance we engage cast members in a moderated talkback on theological issues in the play. We see each of the company's productions at a reduced group price. T&T performances are on Tuesday evenings at 6:30pm. Our first play of the 2017-18 season is Shakespeare's "Macbeth" on Tuesday, September 26.

T&T participants can see as many or as few of the season's plays as they wish. Some congregations select just a couple; others haven't missed a performance in all these years! We have had nights with more than 150 attendees and some with as few as 30. There is no minimum number of tickets each congregation needs to order to get the group rate or to participate in the talkback.

To have your congregation involved is relatively easy. We ask you to identify a coordinator from your congregation who will help publicize the plays and dates, gather a congregational ticket order for each play, and then place one congregational order by phone or e-mail with the "T&T ticket-meister" (Marcia Bollman). As a thank you for their efforts we offer your coordinator a free ticket for one of the plays of their choosing during the season. Please have that Coordinator fill out the enclosed form and either "snail mail" to Marcia Bollman, 3564 Boardwalk Circle, Highlands Ranch, CO 80129, or email to her at danmarboll@cs.com.

Enclosed are play descriptions and dates, ticket prices, and ordering deadlines (usually three weeks in advance). If you have questions contact me by phone at 303-921-9312 (cell), or at danmarboll@cs.com.

Dramatically Yours in Christ!
