August 2017

Dear Faithful Coordinator of Theater & Theology,

The fun begins again!!

Once again we welcome your congregation to “Theater & Theology”, the 2017-18 season, and we hope you got the info on the first play, “Macbeth” on September 26.

First of all, thank you for your help in keeping Theater & Theology (T&T) going for nearly 30 years here in the Rocky Mountain Synod. To show our appreciation in a more tangible way for your help, we offer you a complimentary ticket for one of this year's productions. Let us know which play you would like to see for free, and it's yours!

If you are not serving as coordinator this year, I hope you can identify a replacement, and pass this information to your lucky successor.

To continue your congregation's involvement is relatively easy. We hope you'll continue to help publicize the plays and dates, gather a congregational ticket order for each play, and then place it by phone or e-mail with the “T&T ticket-meister” (Marcia Bollman). We'd like to know of your willingness to do so as soon as possible. Even though you've done this before, please fill out the form again and mail it to Marcia Bollman, 3564 Boardwalk Circle, Highlands Ranch, CO 80129, or email to danmarboll@cs.com.

Enclosed are posters for publicity, the dates, ticket prices, and ordering deadlines for the 2017-18 season. All plays are on Tuesday evenings starting at 6:30 pm. If you need more posters let us know.

If you have questions, contact me by phone 303-921-9312 (cell) or at danmarboll@cs.com.

Dramatically Yours in Christ!

Pastor Dan Bollman (ret.)
