Briefly describe your sense of God's call into mission and service in the Synod through this office:

God's call came via email! I received a list of open positions that still needed applicants and took time to pray over if these were good opportunities for me. The more I read on the purpose of the congregational ministry board and took time in prayer over it, the more certain I became that this would be the right fit.

Briefly describe your skills and experiences that would be an asset to this office:

I have volunteered in several aspects of church life and have a well-rounded understanding of what issues congregations may face and what concerns they have. I have a basic understanding of how to read a budget. I am a very thoughtful person, a great researcher and can come up with creative solutions to problems.
