

Building courageous, resilient, and faithful leaders and communities of faith, for the sake of the world.

What is the desired result of Excellence in Leadership (EiL)?

EiL will be a brave and safe place for leaders to practice becoming stronger leaders. As a result of EiL, lay leaders, deacons, and pastors, of congregations and ministries will grow to exercise wise, mature, emotionally intelligent leadership in the many arenas of their lives.

What will it cost?

$200 per person per semester
There are four semesters in the two-year program. Find more info at www.rmselca.org

Who should Participate?

Excellence in Leadership is designed for Rostered Ministers and lay leaders, preferably a team of three or four from a congregation. Space in each location will be limited, so sign up now!

What is Excellence in Leadership?

Excellence in Leadership brings together broad disciplines in a two-year program: Bible study and spiritual practices, family systems, leading from the future, adaptive leadership, and vulnerability and resiliency, all under the umbrella of emotional intelligence, with the intent of forming courageous, resilient and faithful leaders who are better equipped to build courageous, resilient, and faithful communities of faith, for the sake of the world.

Is Excellence in Leadership Right for Me?

- Yes, if you want to grow in your spiritual life, your emotional intelligence, learn how your church family works, and deepen relationships with other congregational leaders.
- Yes, if your congregation wants to be more effective in its ministries, grow spiritually, and build toward a vibrant future.
- Yes, if you have a team of leaders ready to move beyond old models and be better equipped to meet today's challenges.
