

Lutheran Advocacy Ministry-New Mexico

Advocating Congregations: We have initiated a new program to recognize congregations who engage in advocacy work. Since the program was launched last fall, eight congregations have successfully submitted applications and seven have been presented with an Advocating Congregation certificate by LAM-NM Ruth Hoffman.

Lutheran Advocacy Ministry – NM is a ministry of the Rocky Mountain Synod in partnership with ELCA World Hunger. We represent the church in advocating at the state government level with and on behalf of those with little or no economic or political power. Lutheran Advocacy Ministry-NM speaks on behalf of the official positions of the ELCA as applied to the specific context of public policy issues in New Mexico. LAM-NM works in an advocacy partnership with the NM Conference of Churches and the Presbytery of Santa Fe.
