

Q: Where are the young adults? A: in the pulpit!

At least that's where they were on February 11, 2018
and that's where they will be on February 10, 2019!

Invite a student preacher to your congregation for CAMPUS MINISTRY SUNDAY February 10, 2019

This year, Lutheran Campus Ministry in the Rocky Mountain synod had 19 students write and deliver sermons in honor of Campus Ministry Sunday. These brave and talented students are involved in Lutheran Campus Ministry sites at Colorado State University, the University of Northern Colorado, and the University of Colorado Boulder. Pastors at the ministry sites, Paul Judson, Deb Abbott and Zach Parris (respectively) along with the community of students read the gospel text together in preparation. They had conversations about what 'good news' messages could come from the text to help students write their sermons.

Students who preached have a very broad range of interests and majors from engineering to business to music performance and beyond. (Not all of them want to be pastors.) The vulnerability of preaching to a congregation is never easy, and these students do such a great job sharing the gospel! It isn't often that congregations get to know college students, so Campus Ministry Sunday is a great opportunity that (in my opinion) ALL congregations should participate in!

Thank you to everyone who welcomed our students preachers this year!! Please keep February 10th 2019 in mind for Campus Ministry Sunday next year!

Alec Celecki at Bethany Lutheran, Cherry Hills Village

Noah Rolf at First Lutheran, Ault

Jessie Uhrenbacher at Cross of Christ, Broomfield

Kim Balsamo at Faith Lutheran, Eaton