

Did you know?

The ELCA Rocky Mountain Synod is the ONLY synod to host TWO of the ELCA's four volunteer servant corps!

How many are there?

Each year in the Rocky Mountain Synod, 25-30 people from all parts of the world come to live, learn, and serve.

What do they do?

Volunteers dedicate a year to living in intentional community, practicing simple living, working for social justice, and exploring spirituality.

Why is this important?

In our calling to be church together, we are – young and old, rich and poor – together ... building bridges, rooted in community for action.

Are there stewardship opportunities?

Always! Volunteers love receiving care packages, appreciate being remembered in prayer, and enjoy the opportunity to share stories with others that really care!
