RMS Theological Conference 2022 - Park City, UT

look at you
still standing
after being
knocked down
and thrown out.

look at you
still growing
after being picked and plucked
and prodded out of your home

look at you
still dancing
and singing
after being defeated and disassembled

look at you, love
still here and hopeful
after all

Offerings

Throughout the conference, we will not "pass" the offering plate. Offering baskets or plates will be available at the hotel and SOTM. Online giving is also available — Scan the QR code and give anytime!

The offerings will benefit Betela Seminary in Madagascar and the RMS 3E COVID Fund.

For many years, the Rocky Mountain Synod and the Lutheran synods in northern Madagascar have accompanied one another in deepening relationships, prayer, and ministry together as Companion Synods. The funds sent to Madagascar will be designated for Betela Regional Seminary for the training of Lutheran leaders.

The RMS 3E COVID Fund provides grants for mini-sabbaticals and respite—maybe some of you have received these funds?!

As a synod, we need to raise $100,000 matching funds for these grants.

Cash, checks, and online donations are all welcome

Thank you for your generosity!

Presenters

Dr. Edward Mooney Jr. is a college professor (educational psychology and teacher education) specializing in the effects of trauma on teaching and learning.

He is the author of the book, Teaching After Witnessing a School Shooting: Echoes of Gunfire, from Peter Lang, Academic Publishers.

Dr. Mooney was an at-risk student; he grew up with an abusive alcoholic father. He taught high school for years (he was shot once at school), and was named the California State Teacher of the Year (DAR) in 2010. His website is EdwardMooney.net

The Rev. Dr. Kimberly Wagner serves as the Assistant Professor of Preaching at Princeton Theological Seminary. She received a B.S. in Secondary Life Science Education from Miami University (OH), a M.Div. from the Candler School of Theology at Emory University, and her Ph.D. from the Graduate Division of Religion at Emory University.

Though she has served among the Lutherans and was educated among United Methodists, Dr. Wagner is ordained as a Minister of Word and Sacrament in the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). Previous experience on the pastoral staff of a PCUSA congregation in Virginia helps fuel and inform her present scholarship and teaching. She is passionate about supporting students' formation and helping clergy and communities navigate the realities of an ever-changing world and church.

Dr. Wagner's current writing and work focus on preaching and ministry in the midst and wake of trauma, particularly thinking about collective trauma, the role of the preacher, and the resources of our Scriptures and faith to respond to these moments. Dr. Wagner's forthcoming book, Fractured Ground: Preaching in the Wake of Mass Trauma (Westminster John Knox Press, 2023), offers guidance for preaching in the aftermath of communal trauma, including mass violence, natural disasters, and public health crises.

When not teaching, writing, or meeting over Zoom, she enjoys baking, tinkering on the piano, biking, and long walks with her dog, Toby.

Many children pretend at being firefighters, teachers, or doctors. But at the age of ten, Rev. Nicolé Raddu Ferry was pretending to offer Holy Communion to her stuffed animals with water and crackers. Since “girls cannot be pastors,” she began her career as a social worker, earning B.S. and M.S. degrees from the University of Tennessee and the University of Maryland, Baltimore. Rev. Raddu Ferry worked with youth in the public and non-public sectors, and in congregational settings in Maryland. After discerning or returning to a call to ordained ministry, Rev. Raddu Ferry received her MDIV from Lutheran Theological Seminary, Gettysburg. Rev. Raddu Ferry currently serves Bethlehem Lutheran Church, Los Alamos, NM where she publicly serves bread and wine, and gleefully shares her presence with all who are blessed to meet her.

Pastor Nicolé will lead us in Morning Prayer each day and she is serving as the Chaplain for our event. She is available for private conversation and prayer or random bursts of joy and spontaneous dancing.
